

United States Interagency Council on Homelessness

Preventing and Ending Homelessness in the United States

Lindsay Knotts

Policy Advisor

Lindsay Knotts serves as Policy Advisor for the U.S. Interagency Council on Homelessness. As part of the Washington, DC, based policy team, Lindsay helps coordinate Federal policy efforts for the Council, providing broad policy guidance to USICH leadership. In her role, Lindsay manages and oversees quarterly convenings of the 19 Council agencies to advance the goals and objectives of Opening Doors, and supports the Council's work to end chronic homelessness and to connect individuals experiencing homelessness to SSI/SSDI benefits. Lindsay joined USICH in August 2013.

Prior to joining USICH, Lindsay served as Project Specialist for the West Virginia Coalition to End Homelessness, a HUD-funded Balance of State Continuum of Care, where she served as SOAR State Team Lead and coordinated the Point-in-Time Count for a 44 county region. She holds a Master of Social Work degree from West Virginia University.
